

Photographing Oklahoma
Land Wood Water

Keystone Nature Photography Workshop
Sand Springs, Oklahoma
November 5-6, 2010

Keystone Nature Photography Workshop

November 5-6, 2010

with Oklahoma photographer Kim Baker

Schedule

Friday, November 5, 2010 6:30-8:00PM - Sand Springs Case Community Center

6:30PM - "Meet and Greet" in the lobby of Sand Springs Case Community Center.

7:00PM – Oklahoma nature and conservation photographer Kim Baker presents Photographing Oklahoma: Land, Wood, and Water.

Saturday, November 6, 2010 5:30AM-3:00PM – Sand Springs Case Community Center

5:30AM – Workshop participants will leave Sand Springs Community Center promptly at 5:30AM, for Keystone Nature Photography Workshop field trip to locations around Keystone Lake, Keystone State Park and the Arkansas River. Transportation provided.

1:00PM-3:00PM - Workshop participants will return to the Sand Springs Case Community Center for a workshop-provided lunch, creative discussion and a critique session.

Details:

- * Saturday: OklahomaPhotographyWorkshops.com will provide drinking water, snack bars and lunch.
- * Transportation for the Keystone Nature Photography Workshop field trip is provided.
- * Workshop participants should wear hiking boots and be prepared to hike at least 2-3 miles total, some sections, will be over rocky, uneven terrain.
- * Workshop participants are encouraged to bring a USB thumb drive with five images for critique or participants may choose five images from the Keystone Nature Photography Workshop field trip for review after lunch Saturday.